Quick Notes

1. The homepage of the website for downloading Anaconda Navigator has been updated and might not fully align with the images shown in the videos 0.2 Download and Installation of Anaconda Navigator (for Windows) and 0.3 Download and Installation of Anaconda Navigator (for Mac). Kindly refer to the page Anaconda Navigator Installation for the updated instructions for downloading and installing Anaconda Navigator.
2. We would recommend that you manually change the resolution of the video to 720p or 1080p to avoid any video blur issues. (Please refer to the image below for changing resolution)

3. All the videos come with subtitles in the English language. (Please refer to the image below to enable subtitles for the video)

4. We recommend you increase or decrease the playing speed of the videos if you find the videos too slow-paced or fast-paced respectively. (Please refer to the image below to adjust the playing speed of the video)
